

17.02.2020 by Daniel Kofler

Miura RS

...one glider two classes!

This elegant wing will impress you with its straightforward nature, and not only for cross-country flying: its light weight and small pack size mean that it is also at home on Hike & Fly or bivvy adventures all over the world.

The RAST system means that the HELIOS RS remains very easy to control for its certification level even in challenging conditions, making it ideally suited for pilots just starting with a C-class wing