NEW! Connect Race Lite, the lightweight XC pod harness

Lightweight, durable, versatile – if you are looking for a versatile, lightweight pod harness, you cannot avoid the new SWING Connect Race Lite.

The sporty and elegant Connect Race Lite can be used as a comfortable cross-country harness whatever your plans. It is light enough for extended hike and fly trips, and its construction and the materials used guarantee durability and easy handling both on the ground and while airborne. The protector options and removable seat board allow you to optimize the Connect Race Lite according to your particular needs and purpose.
